ABOUT US

E888 Consultants was established in August 2009 by Nicola Janzen van Vuuren. The company takes on different roles, which reflect expertise and leadership. Amongst these we render consultation in various projects, specializing in the petroleum services. We liaise with a professional team of experts well known and accomplished in the petroleum industry with a thorough knowledge of the petroleum legislation. Whilst continuously striving to improve our skills to ensure an efficient and professional service is provided to the Client we have the necessary resources and attributes to achieve the stipulated objectives of projects.

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

In terms of the Petroleum Industry an Environmental Management Plan (EMP) as contemplated in Regulation 16 (b)(i) of the Regulations, an EIA specialist is required for Site and Wholesale applications in terms of the Petroleum Products Amendment Act (Act 58 of 2003). The EMP is to be prepared by a qualified Environmental Specialist.

We liaise with the EIA specialist and include that in our proposals.

We believe that we have the necessary resources and skills to ensure an efficient professional service to achieve the stipulated objectives of your project.
